LYNX '75

*SPEARMAN PUBLIC SCHOOLS
SPEARMAN, TEXAS 79081
VOLUME 30*

Foreword

As you look at the 1975 Lynx for the first time and as you return to it in the passing years we hope that it will be a reminder of what we did while we attended Spearman High School.

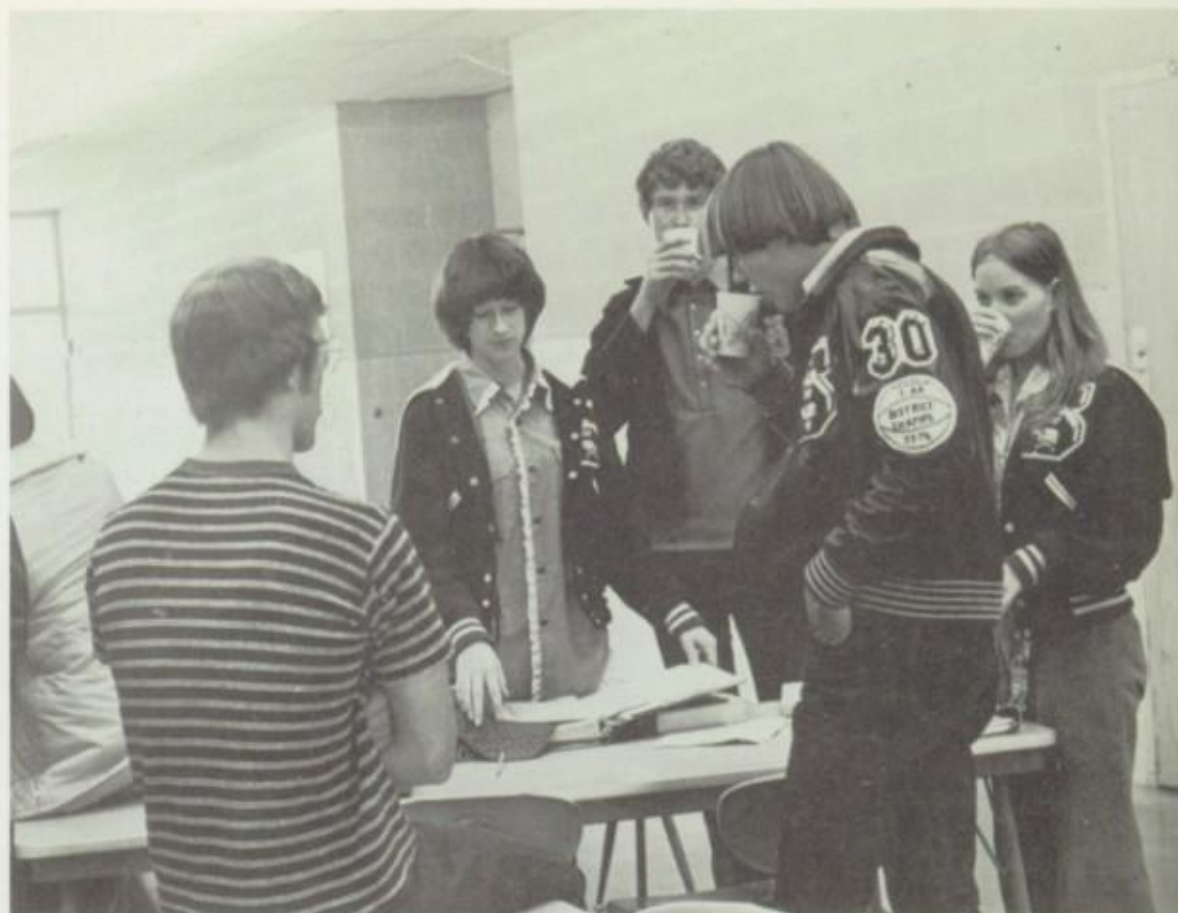

For our parents, our friends, the townspeople of Spearman and anyone else that is interested, this yearbook is an attempt to tell what we students of Spearman High School did, in 1975, at school, at home, at work, at play.

The '75 Lynx tells about us at band practice, at athletic practices, at cheerleading practice, in English, at early math sessions, at the movies, at the mall, in typing, at work, going to a picnic and all of the hundreds of other activities that made up our lives in 1975.

Our lives during the school year center around the school but our day is not done at the 3:30 bell for there is life after school, also. It's the time when we play, practice, do homework, goof off, work, loaf or otherwise spend life's greatest gift - time.

This is the way it was in our lives during the school year of 1974-75.

Lynx Annual Staff

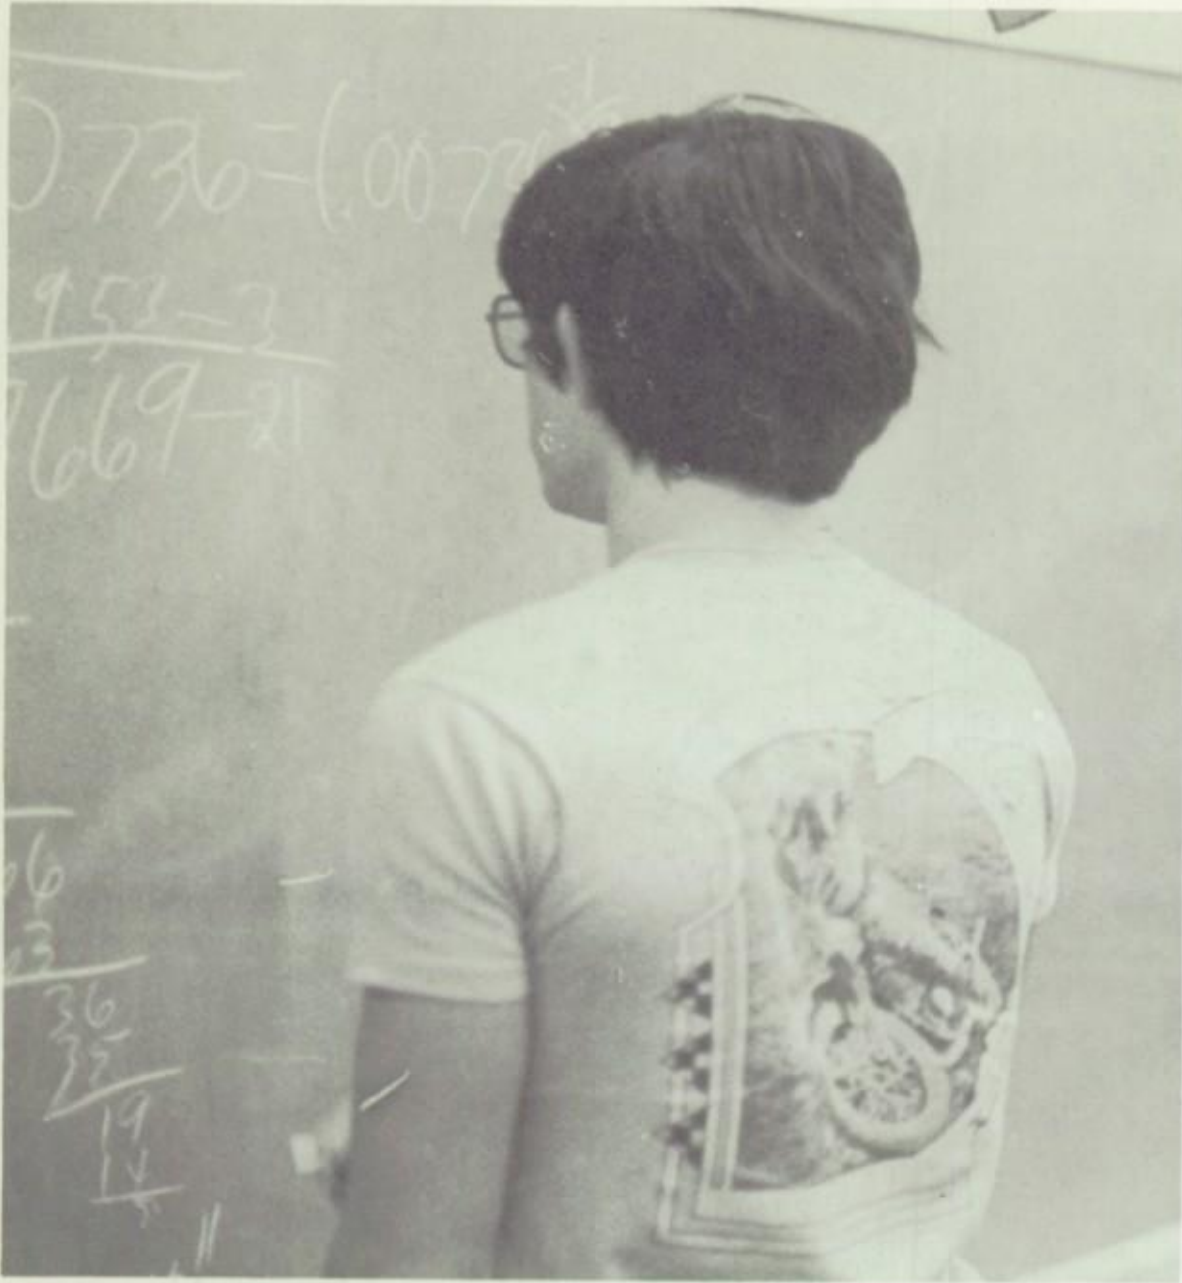

Monte Dixon, Rhonda Nelson, Raymie Porter, Kathy Garner, and Terril Brummet prepare for the long day by starting with a coke and a chat.

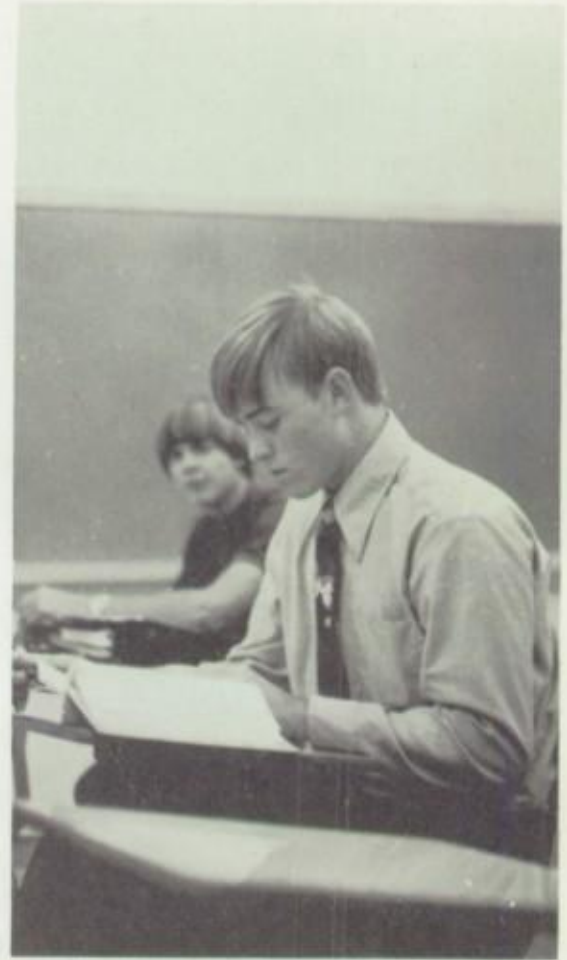

William Porter gets instructions from Mrs. Weaver in the intricacies of trigonometry. Perhaps they're only discussing the right way to hold a pencil?

Our Activities at School

Paul Garza works on his Physics problem, which looks a lot like his girl friend's phone number.

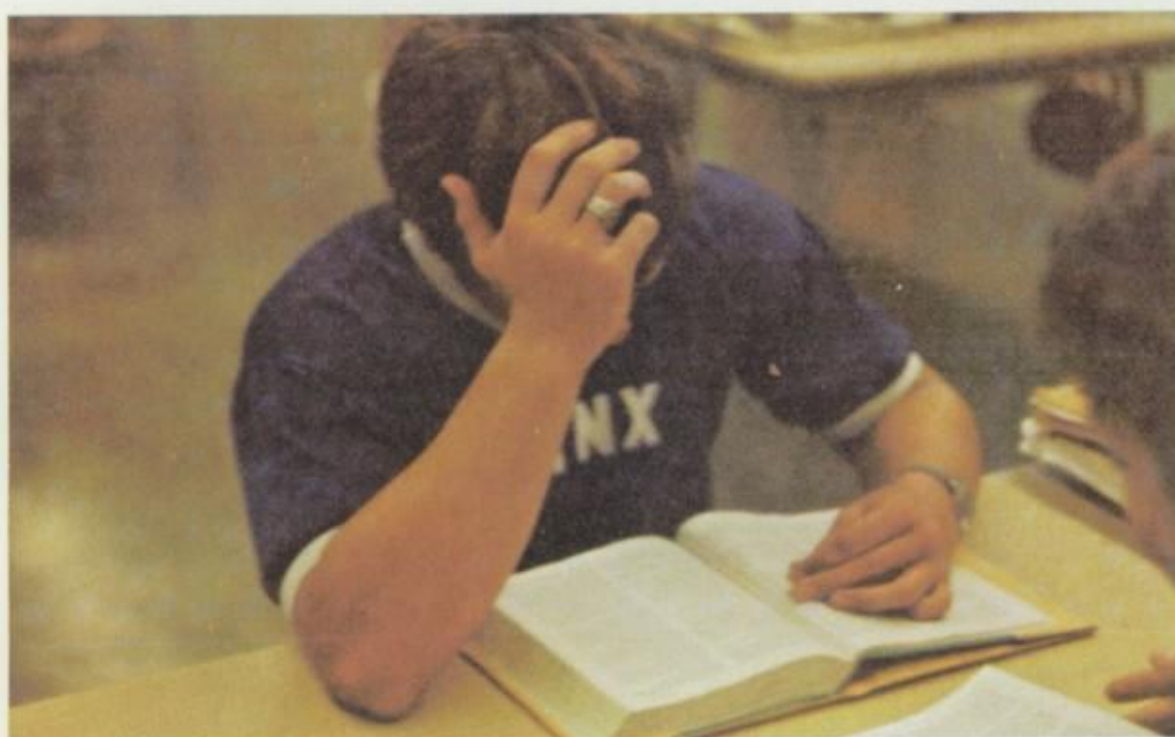

Leon Hagerman does the unusual - studies in study hall.

Obviously Cindy isn't here to see Mr. McKay.

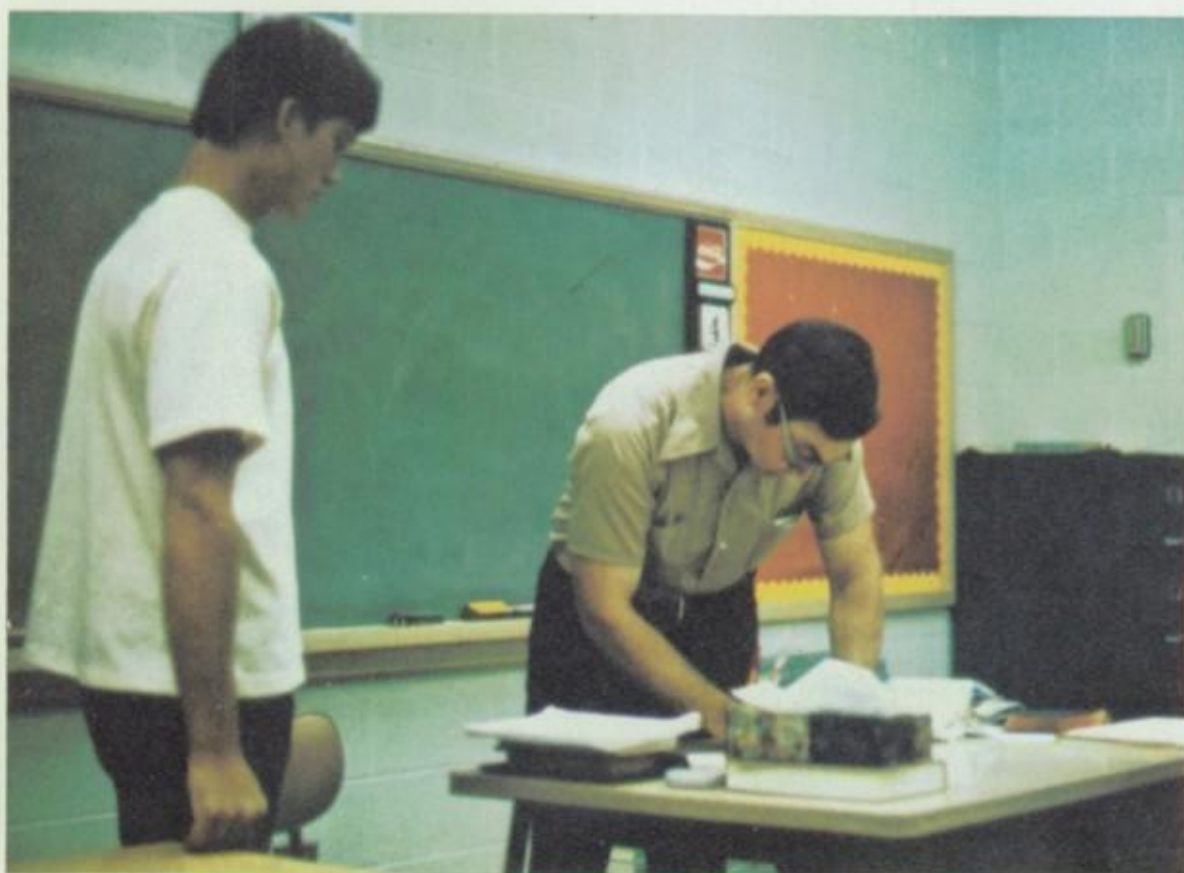

Twila Davis, David Witt, Alan Uptergrove, Ed Pogue, and Ricky Vardell await the start of biology class.

 MIDDLE RIGHT: D. Ware considers a nap in the presence of a biology assignment.
 BOTTOM RIGHT: T. Robertson, D. Schmehr, and D. Ware play their French horns.

TOP LEFT: D. Berner waits for the phone to ring in her role as office assistant.
 MIDDLE LEFT: C. Moore watches as . . .
 MIDDLE RIGHT: . . . G. Maize refits her contact.
 BOTTOM LEFT: N. Davis gets the verdict from Mr. Benton - Rewrite!

and After School . . .

At last the school day is over.

L. Avila, K. Lane, and B. Sheets take time from their job to catch up on the gossip.

R. Jones tackles an opponent. T. Harper is there to assist if necessary.

D. Benton waters the grass at home.

Activities for SHS students after school take many forms. Some remain for activities at school, others have duties at home, some go to jobs, in the evenings there are games to attend. All in all, SHS students manage to stay busy all day, every day.

Wonder if Frosty will give us a ride home?

MIDDLE LEFT: The new swimming pool remained open after school started and enjoying it were D. Sheppard, D. Boatwright, S. Abbott, M. Schumann, and C. Harper.

MIDDLE RIGHT: F.F.A. and F.H.A. members rode in trucks to the site of their picnic, Mathew Ranch.

RUNNER-UP IN AA FOOTBALL!!

Coach Sherwood listens on the headphones with coaches Truelove and Moore.

The 1974 football season was the best for the Lynx in Spearman High School's history. In fact it was perfect except for the first and last games. The Lynx lost their first game of the season to Stratford 14 to 20. They then started a 13 game winning streak. The Lynx were undefeated in district play. Then, in championship play they defeated Henrietta 50 to 19; Olton 24 to 19; Alpine 13 to 7; Bowie 43 to 8. The Lynx then advanced to the State finals where they were defeated by a BIGGER Newton team, 56 to 26, in a hard-fought ball game. Coach Greg Sherwood's Lynx ended the season with a 13-2 record. This is Coach Sherwood's second and most outstanding year here at Spearman.

Brown, Switzer, and Cooper clear the way for Fox as the Lynx win the district game over Boys Ranch.

AFTERWORD

And so another year in our lives has passed. Another yearbook has recorded the school days of that year. The class of 1975 is headed to college, or to jobs, or to marriage, or whatever, to be scattered irretrievably . . . but there will be another senior class to take its place, another school year, another group of activities and so the process will continue into the indefinite future . . . the process that is called education, growing up, changing, while we are students at Spearman High School. We hope this yearbook will serve as a record of good memories, happy moments, joyous activities at Spearman High School in 1974-75.

The Lynx Annual Staff

ACKNOWLEDGE- MENT

The 1975 Lynx Staff wishes to thank the following persons and organizations for their help with this year's edition: Rev. Russell Rogue, The Spearman Reporter, Ernest Newcombe, and C & B Studio for their pictures.

We also wish to thank all the teachers and administrators for their cooperation.

Debbie Sheppard drew the cover design for the annual and also did art work for the ad section.

A great big thank you also goes to all our advertisers because without them there would be no 1975 Lynx. We have tried to indicate their importance to us by giving their ads a more prominent place in this year's book. You can also help thank our advertisers by patronizing their business and also by telling them you saw their ad in the annual.

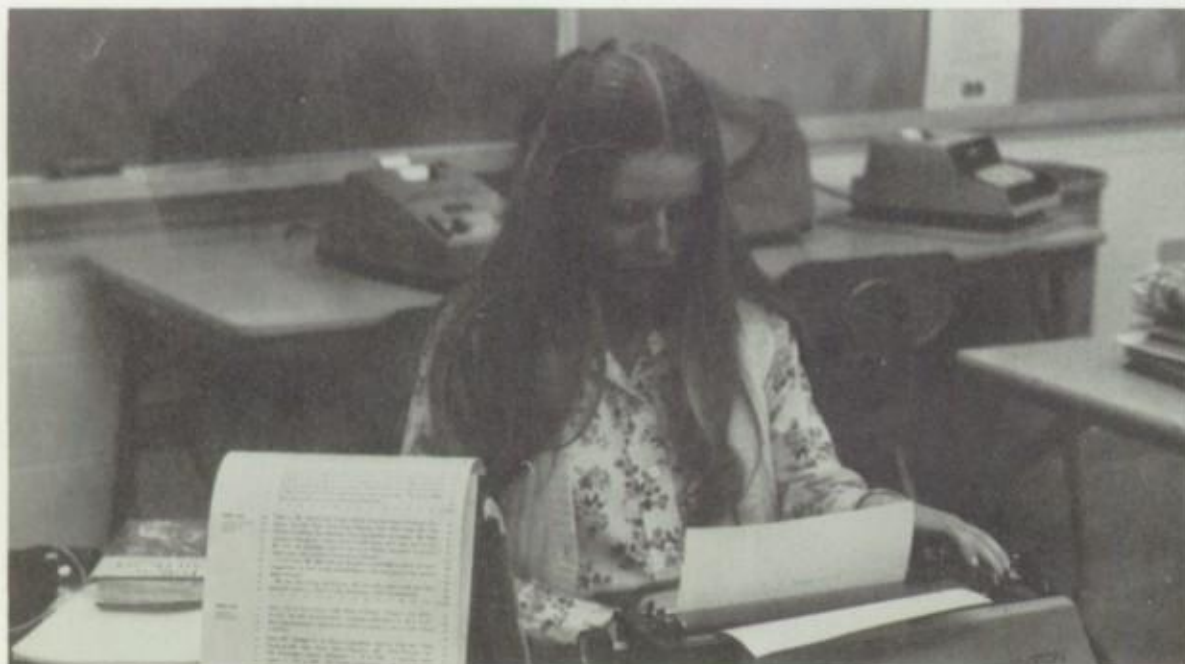

R. Janzen seems to be the only one studying.

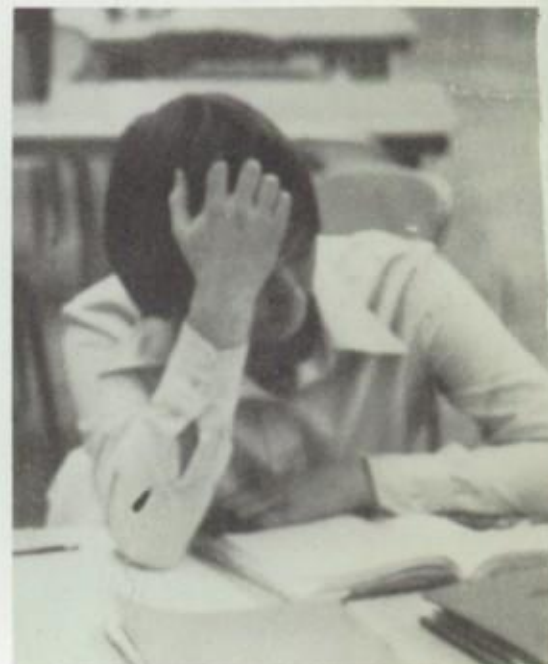

Can you guess who these 1975 Seniors are?

C. Patterson asks, "Where did you get your outfit Kristi?"

C. Hamilton wonders if she should erase or start over on her typing assignment.

A. Brillhart gets a head start on homework.
